

"...this is one sleek, confident, athletic, daring, versatile company."

—Chicago Sun-Times

Founded in 1989 by four visionary dancers and choreographers, River North Dance Chicago has established itself as one of Chicago's leading dance companies, and one of the most popular national repertory companies, receiving critical acclaim in the U.S. and internationally. Highly skilled and emotive dancers, stimulating music and bold, commanding works by nationally and internationally renowned choreographers are the hallmarks of this jazz-based contemporary company, led by Artistic Director Frank Chaves. River North concerts include several works spanning a wide variety – offering performances enjoyed by seasoned dance patrons as well as those having their first experience with concert dance.
